

Kentucky Court of Justice

Compensation Plan - Elected Judicial Officials

The Kentucky Court of Justice (KCOJ) compensation plan includes a request to increase the salaries of judges and circuit court clerks by $10,000. Similar to KCOJ non-elected employees, our elected officials are greatly underpaid in comparison to their colleagues in other states and similarly situated county officials. Our court system is a leader across the nation for our operations, innovations and processes. However, our judges are paid over 20 percent less than the national average and our circuit court clerks make an average of 11 to 13 percent less than county officials.

Judicial Salaries Lag Behind Most Other States and Territories
